

Health, Safety, Environment & Quality Policy

Urakawa Jenkins Architecture is a registered architectural firm that offers services Australia wide.

Our objective is to provide architectural, interior and urban design services to our clients and offer incorporation of sustainable principles on all projects.

We are committed to maintaining and continuously improving an Integrated Management System to comply with the requirements of the following international standards:

ISO 9001: 2015	Quality management systems
ISO 14001:2015	Environmental management systems
ISO 45001:2018	Occupational health and safety management systems

To achieve our objective, we will:

- ◆ Maintain full compliance with relevant legislation and other requirements.
- ◆ Identify business and project risks, implement mitigation measures and improvement plans.
- ◆ Provide a safe and healthy workplace for the prevention of injuries, occupational illness and environmental harm to our staff, contractors, and visitors.
- ◆ Protect the environment and prevent pollution.
- ◆ Eliminate hazards and reduce OHS risks.
- ◆ Consult with workers and encourage their participation in the management system.
- ◆ Ensure all personnel are competent to perform in their roles, and identify and provide for ongoing training.
- ◆ Consult and establish partnerships with stakeholders to identify the most effective approach to alleviate impacts and achieve improved performance.
- ◆ Develop and action measurable objectives and targets in support of this policy and UJA's strategic direction.
- ◆ Implement audit programs and regularly review aspects of the Integrated Management System.
- ◆ Promote a culture of personal responsibility for quality, safety, and the environment.
- ◆ Provide customers with products and services that meet expectations and requirements every time.
